

BA-656

19th century

Former Owings Mills Post Office (site)
10418 Reisterstown Road
(west side, just S of railroad crossing)
Owings Mills

This late Victorian house was the first structure below the old grade crossing of the 1859 rail route. It was a two-story frame cross-gable with a gable roof, and covered in composition shingles. Its last use was as a residence. The owner was listed as the Estate of William D. Groff, Sr. It was demolished c. February 20, 1984.

Former Owings Mills Post Office, site
10418 Reisterstown Road (MD 140), Owings Mills
Reisterstown Quadrangle

